Reception and

American Greyhound visit 1:30 p.m.

Please come to this special event featuring Elizabeth reading from her book of Facebook postings, MAKE SOMEONE HAPPY, as well as a sneak preview from her upcoming novel, THE STORY OF ARTHUR TRULUV. In attendance at this reading will be Elizabeth's partner Bill and their dog, Gabby.

There will be refreshments, flowers, and, as a special component in honor of Homer the lion-hearted golden, who recently went on the Big Journey, the library will host American Greyhound rescue.

You'll be able to visit with rescue greyhounds that are waiting for their forever homes. Please bring a new dog toy (they especially love squeaky stuffies) to share with the greyhounds that American Greyhound rescues.

The Library presented a tour of the historic homes in Crown Point on Molly the Trolley. (Look for September Trolley Tour dates soon.) The tour was given by Jeanene Letcher, CPCL's Reference Department and Indiana Room Specialist. Maps for a self-guided tour are available in the 1st floor lobby.

Check out the new display on the endcap of the Mystery section on the first floor highlighting Beach Reads. It will contain books from the Fiction stacks that relate to the beach. Warning... the covers are mesmerizing so don't get paralyzed as you dream about a beach vacation!

Rock Painting Party

Thursday, Aug. 24 | 6 -7:30 p.m.

Saturday, Sept. 9 | 1 - 3 p.m.

Join in the new rage, painted rocks placed in the community to bring a smile to someone's day. Inspired by the Kindness Rock Project, Crown Point Rocks will join the library in hosting an all-ages rock painting party.

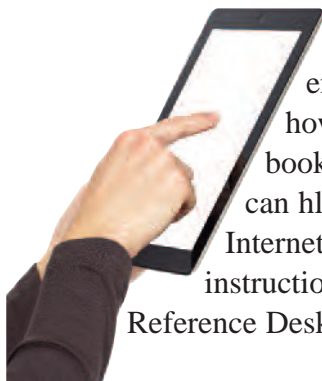

Crown Point Rocks encourages the same goals as the Kindness Rock Project. First, to inspire others through randomly placed decorated rocks placed in the community, and second, to recruit people that find a rock to join in the pursuit of inspiring others through a random act of kindness. The party will be a drop-in party so you may come and go at any time during the program and paint a rock to share in our community.

No registration is required and all supplies will be provided, but you can bring a rock to paint, if you'd like. Open to all ages and abilities! Participants are encouraged to place their rock in the community and watch for it to appear on the Crown Point Rocks Facebook page when the finder shares the rock.
