BUNCO for BOOKS

The Friends are inviting bunco players of all skill levels to come out for a night of dice rollin' fun that will help raise money for books. Proceeds from this fundraiser will be used to support literacy outreach including purchasing books and supplies for Book Babies, Library Book Discussion Groups, Book Club To Go Kit and Books to Bridge the Region. These free services, provided through the Library, are made possible by the generous funding of the Friends of the Library.

So call up your best friends to support literacy and let the good times roll on Friday, November 2. The event will take place in the Crown Point Library meeting rooms. Doors will open at 6 p.m. and Bunco will start at 7 p.m. Game instruction will also start at 6:30 p.m. for new bunco players.

Tickets are $40 per person (or $35 for Friends of the Library members) and include your game entry, dinner and two raffle tickets. Tickets can be purchased at the Crown Point Library.

Bunco is an easy-to-learn game!

All you need to do is roll the dice and keep score.

The Friends of the Crown Point Library mission is to enhance and promote the use and enjoyment of the library. They raise funds to support library programs, services and to help fund items not generally covered in the library's regular operating budget. Read more about what they have supported this year and their upcoming events on page 7.

Schiele's radical paintings scandalize Viennese society while daring artists like Gustav Klimt and art agents alike are sensing the exceptional.
