

Personal visits with your Parent Educator at school or home each month

Playgroups & group connections with other teen parents

Developmental screenings for your baby

Links to community resources you can use

HERE FOR YOU HERE FOR YOUR BABY

Whether you just found out you are pregnant, are due next month, or have already given birth - we can help. We aren't going to judge you. We're going to help you create the best possible future for you and your child. Our services are NO COST and are offered during school or at home. Your professional Parent Educator will be with you every step of the way, becoming a trusted friend and resource as you navigate school, home, and being a new parent.

how to sign up

Contact your school guidance counselor, nurse, or social worker and ask to sign up for ETAP, or call or email us at (219) 228-2572 or lgordon@mhanwi.org today. We promise to maintain a CONFIDENTIAL relationship. Teen fathers are also welcome to join!

we will ...

- Support you as you earn your high school diploma or GED
- Help you access prenatal and well-child care
- Share parenting skills that will keep you and your baby healthy and happy
- Encourage a supportive relationship with your friends and family
- Provide information about pregnancy and pregnancy prevention
- Develop future goals with you
- Address daily challenges you face
- Enable you to earn points for accomplishing goals and redeem them for baby care items

mhanwi.org
219.228.2572