Christmas at Marshall Fields

an illustrated lecture with historian Leslie Goddard

For many Chicagoans, no Christmas season was complete without a visit to Marshall Field and Co. We'll trace the store's holiday traditions, including the Walnut Room Christmas tree, the window displays, the toy department, and Frango Mints. A fun and fascinating look at one of Chicago's most beloved holiday traditions.

This is a lecture, not a portrayal.

Thursday, December 10 at 6 p.m.
at the Crown Point Library

TICKETS

$15 Friends Member | $20 Non-member

Purchase at the Crown Point Library

Cash or check payable to the Friends of CP Library

Fundraiser benefiting the Library

Leslie Goddard is an award-winning actress and scholar presenting history programs for over fifteen years. She holds a Ph.D. from Northwestern University specializing in American studies and U.S. history and a master's degree in theater.

A former museum director, she is the author of three books on history and currently works full-time as an author and public speaker.

FRIENDS of the Crown Point Library

Proceeds from the Friends of the Crown Point Library fundraising event benefit the Crown Point Library. Thank you for your support!