Wits Workout

Wed. June 7, 21, and 28 at 1 p.m.

Join Linda from the Purdue University Lake County Extension Office for Wits Workout and learn how to help your brain stay in the best shape possible. Our brains control essential executive functions, such as speaking, thinking, learning, making sound decisions, and remembering. In addition to physical exercise, getting at least seven to eight hours of quality sleep and eating a heart-healthy diet improves brain fitness for maintaining long-term cognitive health in older adults. Registration is required and the program is intended for adults.

All Together Now in Spanish!
Wednesday June 28 from 9 a.m.-10:30 a.m.

Do you speak Spanish fluently? Maybe you are currently learning the language, or only remember bits and pieces from your high school days. Regardless of your level, join us for a conversational Spanish meet up! Enjoy a cup of coffee and a snack while you chat with new friends in Spanish! Registration is not required but is appreciated! This program is intended for adults.

Adult Crafting

Tuesday, June 6 at 2 p.m.
