

CROWN POINT COMMUNITY LIBRARY presents

One State / One Story:

ALL THAT SHE CARRIED

A Community Read

indiana humanities
think. read. talk.

PROGRAM GUIDE

The Crown Point Community Library received a grant from Indiana Humanities to participate in the statewide One State/One Story Community Read of

All That She Carried: The Journey of Ashley's Sack, a Black Family Keepsake by Tiya Miles.

In September, the library will host five programs, including a community book discussion, about this poignant story of resilience and what light a piece of art can shed on our history. Programs are free, and registration is appreciated.

Copies of the book will be available to check out at the Crown Point location. The audiobook is also available on Libby through the Indiana Digital Library.

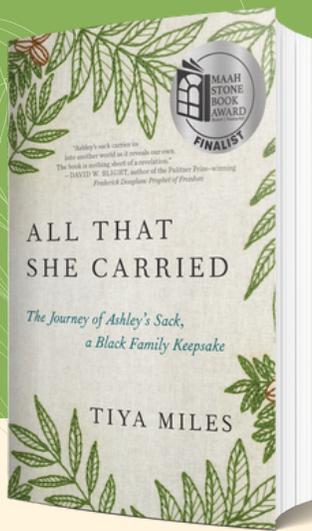

One State / One Story program is part of Indiana Humanities' Advancing Racial Equity project, which supports discussions of history and memory and how engaging with our past can help us understand contemporary injustices and strive for racial equity.

Copies of the book are available to check out at the Crown Point Community Library.
The audiobook is also available on Libby through the Indiana Digital Library.

Programs are free and held in the meeting rooms at the Crown Point Community Library,
122 N. Main Street, Crown Point, Indiana.

Registration is appreciated.
Please visit crownpointlibrary.org/events or scan the QR code below.

CROWN POINT COMMUNITY LIBRARY presents

One State / One Story:
ALL THAT SHE CARRIED
A Community Read

Tracing Your Roots: Genealogy Even When It's Tricky

Sunday, Sept. 8 at 1 p.m.

Crown Point Library

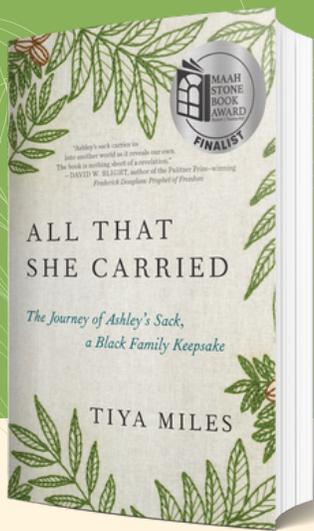

Register at crownpointlibrary.org/events

Presented by Indiana Room Specialist, Jeanene Letcher

Have you researched your family history and muddled yourself into a never-ending circle of information? Our Indiana Room Specialist, Jeanene Letcher, will provide starting points for genealogical research, including tricky situations where tracing family lineage is complex.

CROWN POINT COMMUNITY LIBRARY presents

One State / One Story: ALL THAT SHE CARRIED

A Community Read

Grown Up Show & Tell

Monday, Sept. 9 at 9:30 a.m.

Crown Point Library

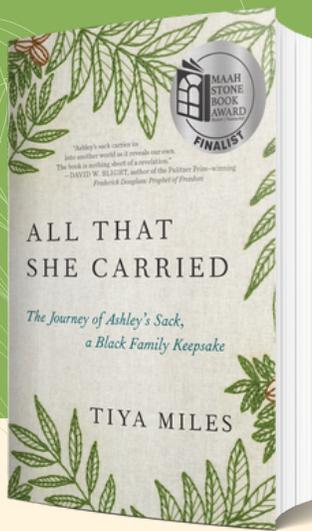

Register at crownpointlibrary.org/events

Do you own something that tells a cool story? Whether it's a family heirloom, a collectible, or your oldest (or newest!) possession, please bring it to our adult show and tell and share the history and personal story behind your sentimental personal belongings.

CROWN POINT • WINFIELD

CROWN POINT COMMUNITY LIBRARY presents

One State / One Story: ALL THAT SHE CARRIED

A Community Read

Embroidery Workshop

Tuesday, Sept. 17 at 2 p.m.

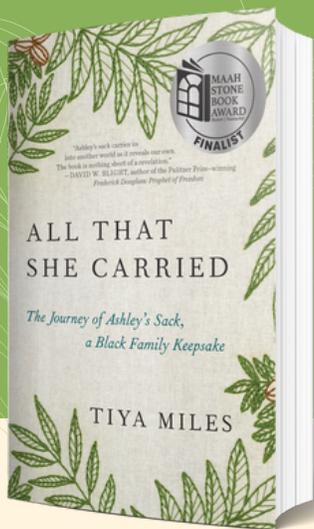

Crown Point Library

Register at crownpointlibrary.org/events

Join us in exploring the story of embroidery. Learn how to prepare an embroidery hoop, thread a needle, and create basic stitches! Materials are provided to embroider your own item to keep.

CROWN POINT COMMUNITY LIBRARY presents

One State / One Story: ALL THAT SHE CARRIED

A Community Read

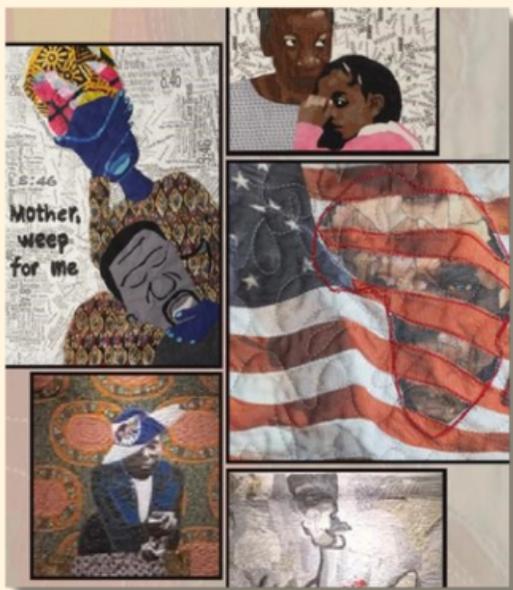

Black Quilters: Hard Topics, Soft Blows

Saturday, Sept. 21 at 2 p.m.

Crown Point Library

Register at crownpointlibrary.org/events

Presented by Dr. Tony Jean Dickerson

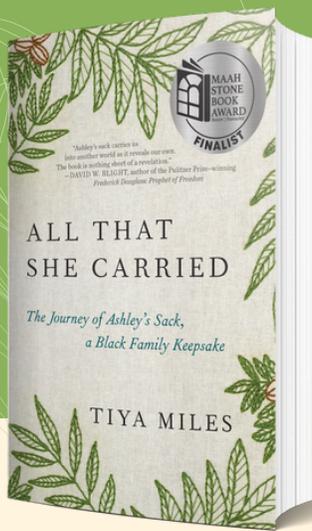

Dr. Tony Jean Dickerson (she/her) was born and raised in Indianapolis, Indiana. She is the lead faculty for Martin University's School of Education's Teacher Preparation Program and a nationally recognized quilter and member of eight local and national quilt guilds including the founding president of the Akoma Ntoso Modern Quilt Guild of Central Indiana.

CROWN POINT • WINFIELD

CROWN POINT COMMUNITY LIBRARY presents

One State / One Story: ALL THAT SHE CARRIED

A Community Read

Community Book Discussion Wednesday, Sept. 25 at 6 p.m.

Crown Point Library

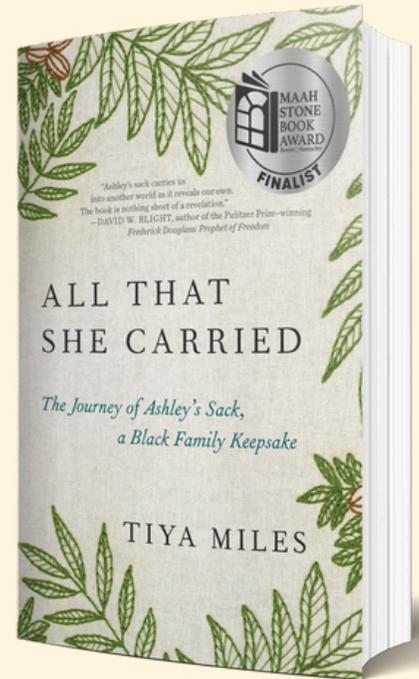

Register at crownpointlibrary.org/events

Facilitated by Dr. Vanessa Allen-McCloud, President & CEO of Urban League of Northwest Indiana, Inc.

Join our Community Book Discussion! Dr. Vanessa Allen-McCloud will facilitate the discussion and refreshments will be served. Copies of the book will be available to check out at the Crown Point location and the audiobook is available on Libby through the Indiana Digital Library.

Dr. Vanessa Allen-McCloud loves education and is a tenacious community leader. She is an exceptional administrator who has proven successful in various professional positions along the full spectrum of education, including university teaching, coaching, and consulting. Her most prolific professional experience began in 2010 when she was appointed President and CEO of the Urban League of Northwest Indiana. Under her leadership, the Urban League of Northwest Indiana has grown in reputation, scope, and service to the Northwest Indiana region and surrounding areas.

CROWN POINT • WINFIELD

One State / One Story:
All That She Carried/Freedom Over Me is presented by Indiana Humanities in partnership with the Indiana Center for the Book and the Indiana State Library as part of Indiana Humanities' Advancing Racial Equity Project, supported by Lilly Endowment.

www.crownpointlibrary.org